GCSU Hands No. 8 Pirates First Loss Of Season, 2-1

Posted: Oct 06, 2010

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. - Georgia College scored two first-half goals and fended off a Pirate second-half rally to notch a 2-1 Peach Belt Conference women's soccer victory over No. 8 Armstrong Atlantic on Wednesday evening at Bobcat Field.

The Bobcats (6-3, 3-0 PBC) remained unbeaten in league play with the win, while the Pirates (7-1-2, 5-1 PBC) saw their nine-match unbeaten streak come to a close one match shy of their school record.

GCSU struck first just 12 minutes into the match as Brittaney Borrer shot caromed off the left post and into the goal, off of a cross from Taylor Yee, to put the Bobcats up, 1-0.

The Pirates answered at the 22 minute mark as Nadima Skeff collected a loose ball in the box that GCSU goalkeeper Mary Rob Plunkett came out of the box to play. Skeff bent it around the Bobcat defenders into the goal for her fourth tally of the season, tying the match at 1-1.

GCSU took the lead for good in the 36th minute as Kayla Emerson took advantage of a spill by AASU defender Amber Raney and raced in from the left side to beat AASU keeper Tracey Mitchell and give the Bobcats a 2-1 halftime lead.

AASU had a golden chance less than a minute before halftime as Lianne Stricklen's volley just popped over the crossbar.

In the second half, AASU outshot the Bobcats, 13-3, but could not get the equalizer. The best chance came from Erin Holt as her shot in the 68th minute was saved by the feet of a sprawling Plunkett.

For the match, AASU outshot the Bobcats, 24-10, and enjoyed a 9-4 advantage in corner kicks. Plunkett made eight saves on the night for GCSU, while Mitchell made four saves for the Pirates.

AASU was whistled for 11 fouls, compared to seven for the Bobcats, and GCSU was offside twice in the match.

The Pirates return to action on Saturday, October 9, hosting No. 3-ranked Columbus State at 3:30 p.m. at the AASU Soccer

Field.
